Mechanism for determining ordinary course of business and arm's length basis:

Ordinary course of business:

All transactions or activities that are necessary, normal and incidental to the business of the Company shall be deemed to be in the ordinary course of business. These may also be common practices and customs of commercial transactions.

To decide whether an activity which is carried on by the business is in the 'ordinary course of business', the following factors may inter alia be considered:

- a. Whether the activity is covered in the objects clause of the Memorandum of Association.
- b. Whether the activity is in furtherance of the business.
- c. Whether the activity is normal or otherwise routine for the particular business.
- d. Whether the activity is repetitive/ frequent.
- e. Whether the income, if any, earned from such activity/transaction is treated as business income in the company's books of account.
- f. Whether the transactions are common in the particular industry.
- g. Whether there is any historical practice to conduct such activities.
- h. The financial scale of the activity with regard to the operations of the business.
- i. Revenue generated by the activity.
- j. Resources committed to the activity.

Arm's length:

The following guidelines may be used for determining the arm's length basis:

- a. Whether the terms of the transaction are fair and would apply on the same basis if the transaction did not involve a Related Party;
- b. Whether there are any compelling business reasons to enter into the transaction and the nature of alternative transactions, if any;
- c. Whether the transaction would affect the independence of an Independent Director;
- d. Whether the transaction poses any consequential potential reputational risk issues;
- e. Whether the transaction would present an improper conflict of interest for any Director or KMP, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the Director/KMP or other Related Party, the direct or indirect nature of the Directors', KMPs', or other Related Party's interest in the transaction and the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship.

For determining the arm's length pricing, the Transfer Pricing guidelines issued by the relevant authorities under the provisions of Income-Tax Act, 1961 may be used to determine these criteria on a case-to-case basis.

Omnibus approval

Criteria and the need for granting omnibus approval by the Audit Committee:

- a. The Audit Committee may, in the best interests of the Company and to ensure smooth operations, grant omnibus approval for Related Party Transactions, proposed to be entered into by the Company which are routine and repetitive in nature and incidental to the general operations of the Company, subject to such criteria/conditions as it may deem fit, further taking into account the justification for an omnibus approval. Such approval shall specify the details as required under the Companies Act, SEBI LODR Regulations or any notifications / circulars issued thereunder, as amended from time to time.
- b. The Audit Committee may specify any additional conditions for such determination, as it may deem fit.
- c. The Audit Committee may also grant omnibus approval, without the above details, for unforeseen transaction subject to a value not exceeding Rs.1 crore per transaction.

The Audit Committee shall consider all the relevant facts and circumstances regarding the Related Party Transaction, and shall evaluate all options available to the Company, including ratification, revision or termination of the Related Party Transaction. The Audit Committee shall also examine the facts and circumstances pertaining to the failure of reporting such Related Party Transaction to the Audit Committee under this Policy, and shall take any such action it deems appropriate.

In any case, where the Audit Committee determines not to ratify a Related Party Transaction that has been commenced without its approval, the Audit Committee, as appropriate, may direct additional actions including, but not limited to, immediate discontinuation or rescission of the transaction. In connection with any review of a Related Party Transaction, the Audit Committee has authority to modify or waive any procedural requirements of this Policy.

In cases where the Board and/or shareholders' approval is required for a Related Party Transaction but such approval has not been obtained, and if it is not ratified by the Board or, as the case may be, by the shareholders at a meeting within three months from the date on which such Related Party Transaction was entered into, such Related Party Transaction shall be voidable at the option of the Board or, as the case may be, of the shareholders.
